Hub helps musicians hit high notes

Bradford's young musical talent can now head to a one-stop shop of information to get all the help they need to make themselves heard.

Emmerdale star Matthew Wolfenden, the Dancing On Ice champion in 2012, openend a fun day at St George's Hall on Saturday to celebrate the opening of the new Bradford Music Education Hub and its website.

The idea of the hub, led mainly by Bradford Council's Music & Arts Service, is to give young musicians a central information point. The website, bradfordmusic.co.uk, has all the details young people need to learn and enjoy music, from band listings to performance spaces and events.

Hundreds of young people and their families were taking part in the weekend event playing and listening to music, as well as joining in workshops and art projects such as Taiko drum and iPad garage band sessions.
